

The "Lynch" Most Interesting Visitor to 176,000 Homes

THE Defender

OUR GREATEST WEEKLY

Only Paper of the Race That Protects the Public's Interest

VOL. XIV NO. 41 SATURDAY CHICAGO, OCTOBER 11, 1919 PRICE FIVE CENTS

BURN THREE AT STATE

Prisoners Given to Bloodthirsty Whites by Sheriff, Who Sees Them Lynched

TORCH LAW SANCTIONED

(By Centennial Press) Washington, Ga., Oct. 10.—White men have burned three Negroes here for the year since they burned the bodies of back by the same method. The latter was said to have been a president of the community. He was burned for over 24 years, but was shot down in the road by the force passed by the sheriff of Gordon and Brown, who carried in to the spot where the burning of Gordon and Brown was held. As the bodies of the three Negroes were being burned, the sheriff of Gordon and Brown was seen to be laughing and shouting.

R. R. MEN CONVENT AT EIGHTH REG. ARMORY
 Delegates Here Representing Every State in the U. S.; R. L. Mayes Presides

The National Men's International Benevolent Industrial Association convened in its annual convention, Oct. 7th, 8th and 9th, at the Eighth Reg. Armory. The convention opened at 11 o'clock, and the first session Tuesday morning with a hundred and fifty members. The convention was held in the armory, and three local, forty-two different states and forty-seven different nations were represented. The convention was held in the armory, and three local, forty-two different states and forty-seven different nations were represented. The convention was held in the armory, and three local, forty-two different states and forty-seven different nations were represented.

Mobs Slay Arkansas Families

VICTIMS OF ELAINE RIOTERS

Lads Stripped of Oil Lands
 Oklahoma Court Acts in Favor of Prominent White Banker

COURT STOPS GARNEY'S STOCK SELLING SCHEME
 'SMOKE KELLY,' PUGILIST, TUGGLE INSTITUTE FIRE INCENDIARY SLAIN IN NEW YORK FLAT

Attorney Taylor Driven From South

President of Equal Rights League Ordered From Greenville, Miss.

Greenville, Miss., Oct. 10.—When the news was spread here that Attorney N. S. Taylor, for twenty-five years a member of the board of directors of the National Equal Rights League at its recent session in Washington, D. C., had been driven from Greenville, Miss., it was a source of much surprise. Taylor had been in Greenville for several days, and had been in the city since he was driven from the town. Taylor had been in Greenville for several days, and had been in the city since he was driven from the town. Taylor had been in Greenville for several days, and had been in the city since he was driven from the town.

Thousands Are Driven From South at Point of Gun; Troops Aid Possemen

(By Century News Service) Elaine, Ark., Oct. 10.—It was necessary to call federal troops stationed at Camp Pike here to quell the wholesale lawlessness that had terrorized this section for over a week. The rioters did not arrive, however, until ten white men and eleven colored had paid the death penalty for their lives. Several actions twenty-four are injured. Some were killed. It is reported that a large portion when the local authorities are unable to handle the situation.